

For Immediate
Details: (810) 767

Veteran Business Workshop Explains How to Start & Finance Your Business

A free workshop explaining how to start and finance a business will be held for veterans and their families 28 August from 1300-1500 hours at the Traverse City –Michigan Works office, located at 1209 South Garfield Road Traverse City, Michigan 49686

Matt Sherwood, director from VetBizCentral will facilitate the workshop along with Marshall Persky, and Linda Ketterer from the Traverse City SCORE chapter. Brian Picarrazi from the U.S. Small Business Administration will cover the financing portion of the workshop.

The free class is open to veterans, National Guard, Reserve members and their families. Registration with VetBizCentral is required. Contact 810-767-8387 or visit vetbizcentral.org to register for this workshop.

“We hope this workshop will be helpful to veterans that have the desire to open or start a new business”Matt Sherwood said.

VetBizCentral is a non-profit agency which assists veterans with their entrepreneurial endeavors. Counseling, mentoring, networking and education are part of VetBizCentral’s services, most of which are free to veterans. It is one of 15 such non-profit agencies in the nation. VetBizCentral is funded by the U.S.Small Business Administration’s Office of Veterans Business Development and is responsible for serving veterans and their families in six states.